

East Cobb Civic Association General Meeting Wednesday, January 28, 2009

President David Hong called the meeting to order @ 7:05 PM.

President Hong welcomed everyone to the monthly meeting and asked if there were any amendments to the agenda. There were none. David then introduced Fred Sanderson, Superintendent of Cobb County Schools as this month's speaker.

Mr. Sanderson highlighted the successes of Cobb County schools including the selection of 5 schools as Georgia Schools of Excellence and one school, Mabry Middle School which made the National School of Excellence list. He thanked everyone for supporting the recent SPLOST vote in November.

Business Portion

David moved the meeting to the business portion after Mr. Sanderson's remarks and a brief Q & A period with the Superintendent.

The ECCA wanted to remind everyone that Saturday, January 31 was the deadline for nominating property in Cobb County for parks. Commissioner Bob Ott was at the meeting and mentioned that over 200 properties had all ready been submitted of which 15 alone were in District 2.

David Hong then introduced Pam Subalusky from District 3 who spoke on Storm Water Utility. Discussion followed and the ECCA said it would demonstrate support for District 3.

Zonings and Variances

Jill Flamm, Vice-President presented the Zonings and Variances for February that were discussed at the ECCA Board meeting

Petition V-4: Approved January

Petition V-5: No Action (new plan) Amended to a side setback of 6' rather than 4'

Petition V-8: No Action (new plan)

Petition V-11: No Action

Petition V-13: No Action

Petition LUP-2: Oppose

Petition LUP-3: No Action

Petition LUP-5: Oppose

Other Business #3: Oppose subject to stipulations of no further variances and additional buffering

Minutes

There were no minutes from the December meeting to submit.

Treasurer's Report

$13,305.50 cash in bank
174.93 Net cash flow

Old Business

None

New Business

Roger Phelps led a discussion on the Emmanuel Church property near Blue Sky Drive. Janice Reardon from the neighborhood was present to represent the neighborhood. This property cannot be nominated for park land.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 9:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Sarah Brand