

East Cobb Civic Association General Meeting

Wednesday, October 28, 2009

President David Hong called the meeting to order @ 7:10 PM.

Roger Phelps introduced the speakers who were there to present a slide show on the construction of the new Eastside Elementary School. They included Doug Shepard the SPLOST program Chief Administrative Officer for the Cobb County School District, Joel Aycock, architect, and Paul Wiker from the Brookwood Group. The slides showed the design of the new school which will be three levels and around 148,000 sq. feet. The biggest challenge is to construct the new facility while school is open. The new facility is scheduled to open in the Fall of 2011. After the presentation and a Q&A session, anyone who still wanted more information was encouraged to contact the Cobb County School offices.
